Commodore's Report

July 2016

Happy sailing Windycrest mariners. I hope that all have been enjoying the passing of summer and the nice bearable evenings we have had for sailing. The club is in great condition and ready to offer good sailing into the rest of season.

With the impending end of the season, we are planning our annual charity regatta on September 10th and the "Sail for Steve" event this year is shaping up to a good one. Paul Foerster has kindly agreed to join us for the weekend sailing event. Paul Foerster is an Olympic Gold Medal winner and is well known hailing from the Dallas area. We are in the midst of coordinating his involvement and have been discussing ride-alongs and other dealings in two club races. We may possibly have Mr. Foerster do a chalk talk or sailing talk at some point during the regatta. We are not sure how this will be coordinated but are considering a raffle or auction. Whatever the conduit may be it should be a great opportunity to meet a world class sailor.

Last year we raised a significant amount for the ALSO Patient Outreach Services and look to do the same this year. This local organization provides direct assistance for individuals in the Tulsa area that have been traumatized by Lou Gerig's disease. Coming soon you will should be able to sign up on line to participate in this fun regatta. This year we will have burgers and side dishes at the end of the regatta. Your donations to APOS is your fee for the regatta and dinner.

"hark, now hear the sailors cry, smell the sea, and feel the sky let your soul & spirit fly, into the mystic..."

Rear Commodore's Report

Rear Commodore Report:

Many things to report over the last few weeks of Summer.

Junior Camp: Success, Perfect weather, no deaths or serious injuries, just a little heat exhaustion. Everyone had a good time. There are still plenty of great sailing days left in the year, Wednesday nights and Sunday Racing and also Saturdays. You can use a club boat if there are club rescue boats present with permission of myself.

Adult Sailing: I have wrapped up the season, I want to thank everyone who participated and volunteered to help. It has been a huge success and like I said for the juniors still plenty of great sailing days left. I have talked about having a few more advanced/racing classes, please email me if interested.

Notes and Observations: Many folks want to get into sailing but don't know the first step, do I buy a boat and go learn on my own or take sailing lessons with out a boat? Both would be the best bet.

What kind of a boat do I buy? Most of the time, depending on the person who convinces you to buy a boat is probably going to recommend a boat that they have sailed or own. I personally would convince everyone to buy a MC or C scow. But depending on your budget, intentions of racing and family size there is a wide variety of options. New Boats are only to be bought if there is not a healthy market of used boats and an abundance of used boats is usually a reflection of the interest in the class. A good used boat you want to make sure it has decent covers, trailers/hydrohoist, lines, safety gear, water tight, working engine, decent sails. Many small factors that can add up to thousands. A smaller boat is going to teach you to sail in less time, larger boats are less sensitive to wind, steering and body weight. Therefore a smaller boat will give you a literal crash course in physics. I have endless rambling knowledge along with most Windycresters, but check as many sources you can before pulling a trigger on a boat.

Upcoming Events: Beach Party, Lake Party, Lake Sailing, Sailboat Racing. Check the calendar.

Thanks

Fleet Captain Report

The wind is up and the heat is on. We hope to see everyone on the water this month before the scorching hot light August winds. Keep an eye on the Windycrest Facebook page and emails for fill-in racing in August based on wind and temperature.
